The Daniel Dilemma

How to Stand Firm and Love Well in a Culture of Compromise

Starting When: Sunday, September 10 at 9:30am

Where: Desert Foothills Baptist Church Rooms 7 and 8
10655 N. Shannon Road, Tucson

Starting Sunday morning, September 10, 2023, at 9:30, we will be studying the book of Daniel. As Christians, we have real hope in Jesus that we have been called to share with others. But how we share that hope makes a difference. In a world that rejects the Bible, we face a dilemma: how do we walk closely with God without caving in to the pressure or alienating those we want to reach?

This is a six-session DVD Bible study with Chris Hodges and we will take a look at the lives of both Daniel and Jesus, showing how we can stand for our biblical beliefs without being hostile or insulting to others. We can stand up for God's truth in a morally corrupt culture – while still loving others – because the goal is never about winning the argument but about winning hearts. As Jesus demonstrated, when we connect with others before we correct them, we can handle the hard questions without compromising God's grace or truth.

Join us for a time of fellowship (coffee and some unhealthy form of breakfast) and discussion as we go through the book of Daniel together.

Feel free to bring a friend!
