Luke 23

1 Then the whole company of them arose and brought him before Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man misleading our nation and forbidding us to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king." 3 And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him, "You have said so." 4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no guilt in this man." 5 But they were urgent, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee even to this place."

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Read Psalm 78:37-43 and 86:15. How can God's attributes which are hailed in these passages change the way you worship God and respond to sin and temptation in your life?
2. Read Romans 2:4-5. While this passage speaks to what's at stake for non-Christians when they presume upon God's patience, what are some of the things at stake for Christians when we do the same in our Christian lives?
3. Read John 8:43-45. What are some of the specific lies you are tempted to believe when you are in the throes of temptation and ignoring the truth of God's word?
4. Read Colossians 3:12-13. How should God's forbearance and longsuffering impact your dealings with others?
